

2023 Jane B. Avery Keepsakes Award for High School Seniors

Greetings from Our Town Theatre,

Jane B. Avery was an accomplished Drama and English teacher at Southern Garrett High School from 1974 to 2002. One of the requirements for her Theatre II students was to research, write, and perform a Keepsakes monologue about an historical Garrett County Person.

In 1997 Jane founded Our Town Theatre and her students' Keepsakes performances were the first presentations at the theatre.

Jane died in 2016, and to honor Jane's memory and her love of local history and education, Our Town Theatre has established the Jane B. Avery Keepsakes Award.

The total yearly award will be $2,000:

- First Place—$1,000 to a graduating senior
- Second Place—$600 to a graduating senior
- Third Place—$400 to a graduating senior

Each applicant will submit a monologue and works cited page that they have researched and written for a 3 - 7 minute performance based on one of these three criteria: a Garrett Countian who has been deceased at least 50 years, an event in Garrett County that occurred before 1970, or a place in Garrett County.

The written monologue and works cited page will be due March 1, 2023. A panel of reviewers will determine which of the monologues will proceed to being prepared for performance. Our Town Theatre's Board of Directors will supervise optional tutoring for applicants researching their topic, and preparing their performance, which will be presented April 21-22, 2023, at Our Town Theatre. Do not apply if you cannot perform on April 21-22. Selection of recipients by the panel of reviewers will be based on the quality and historical accuracy of their written work and performance. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Mikey Virts, Artistic Director, Our Town Theatre

Emily Elmlinger, President

Richard Hill, Vice-President

And the Board of Directors of Our Town Theatre
